"WOMAN AS A REPOSITORY OF HARMONY IN THE FAMILY AND SOCIETY": 12TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL WFWP CONFERENCE IN UKRAINE

While our focus in the Logic of Love Newsletter is primarily on national activities in the United States, every now and then we highlight international events organized by one of the many active chapters of the Women's Federation for World Peace around the world.

WFWP Ukraine has been hosting international conferences for the past 12 years and developed an incredible network of influential and like-minded ladies, and for their most recent conference WFWP USA President Angelika Selle prepared a special video message that was broadcast to the attendees. "LIFE SKILLS I GAINED FROM WFWP: STOP LETTING YOUR FEARS KEEP YOU FROM ACCOMPLISHING GREAT THINGS"

I have always taken school very seriously, but as I grow older I realize that there are so many life skills that you don't learn in the classroom, like confidence, determining your value system, facing your fears, or trailblazing something new. And through working with WFWP over the past four and a half years, I have gained new experiences that have challenged me to develop life skills outside of what I needed before.

While I have many strengths, I acknowledge my innate weaknesses in certain social settings. I have always been a bit shy or timid, which makes public speaking, voicing my opinions, and making conversation with new people feel overwhelming...

"FAITH LEADERS SHARE ABOUT THEIR RELIGIOUS PRACTICES: FIFTH GATHERING OF THE INTERRELIGIOUS SHARING SERIES IN DENVER

Gale Alves is the co-creator, alongside her husband Antonio, of the Denver Interreligious Sharing Series. With their passion for interreligious dialogue, they organized the first gathering in Denver, Colorado in April 2018 (you can read about it here) and it has been continuing ever since.

"What Does It Mean to Be a Christian, a Sikh, a Mormon, a Muslim, a Unificationist, etc.?" This was the topic of the 5th gathering of our Interreligious Sharing Series at a mosque on April 25th, 2019, and the month of April marked our first anniversary of bringing adherents of different faiths to one place of worship and promote mutual respect and understanding. It all began one year ago in the Denver Lady Fatima Center...

OPEN WIDE THE DOOR TO YOUR INNER CIRCLE: PEACE STARTS WITH ME AND MY FAMILY IN CHANDLER, ARIZONA

Initially conceived by Revs. Staffan and Jane Berg of the Family Federation for World Peace (FFWP), 'Peace Starts With Me and My Family' is a collaborative event that exemplifies the great results achieved through cooperation between Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) and partner organizations FFWP and Universal Peace Federation (UPF) in Arizona.

Earlier this year, on March 9th, 2019, an outdoor family-friendly event that focused on the theme of "Peace Starts With Me and My Family" was held in Tempe, Arizona and right after its successful conclusion, the organizers were encouraged to hold another one in May, this time taking on the format of a conference...

BOOK REVIEW: DON'T LET THE CULTURE RAISE YOUR KIDS

"Just imagine that an alien suddenly dropped into our world to find out what our society thinks about sex. He'd observe how sex is presented in the TV shows we watch, the movies we go to see, the magazines and books we read, and what we look at on our computer screens and smartphones. Maybe he'd go to a high school and sit in on a sex education class to learn what kids are taught about sex. It's not hard to figure out what his conclusions would be. He'd assume that everyone's 'doing it,' that there aren't any consequences (or none that anyone worries about ahead of time), that it's apparently enjoyable but not meaningful, that marriage has nothing to do with it (if he'd even come across the concept of marriage), that there's no moral component (if he'd come across the concept of morality), and that there's no connection between sex and planning a family."
