

President's Corner: RSVP for 30 Year Celebration!

Excitement and anticipation are building as we prepare to celebrate WFWP's three decades of achievement, growth, and impact, from local to global—this coming Saturday, October 22 at 3 pm ET. [\[LINK to registration and promo information\]](#)

We will take this opportunity to reflect in gratitude on how far we have come in the last 30 years, based on the tireless efforts, sacrifices, love, and investment of the motherly heart of countless women, known and unknown. And we will honor and celebrate them!

Becoming Your Own Superhero

Editor's note: This October 1 ceremony was the last HerStory Award ceremony in this milestone year 2022. The national HerStory Awards Ceremony will resume next year on a quarterly basis. Please, stay tuned!

On Oct 1, 2022 WFWP USA held the last National HerStory Award ceremony of the year which was virtual and attended by 35 participants and emceed by Dr. Susan Taffer, Founder & CEO of World Connections Foundation. The HerStory awardees represented various backgrounds but the common denominator among them was that despite life's insurmountable challenges, they chose to look at the bright side of things and inspire others.

Part 2: I Promised My Dad

Editor's note: The story On the Edge of Death and A Promise Made to God continues from the last newsletter as Cheryl Landon shares the promise she made to her father.

Twenty one years after Dad made his promise, I was at this bedside. Roles reversed. Dad had contracted both liver and pancreatic cancer.

Quickly came the day that Dad was told by his doctors he had three weeks to live. My rock and strength were rapidly dissolving. I was scared, actually terrified of losing Dad. He had been my greatest security, my Rock of Gibraltar, literally my savior since I was eight years old.

Now thirty years later, we are alone in his bedroom. Dad was too weak to get out of bed and walk down stairs to the family room. It was here Dad and I discussed his serious concerns. He told me about his one main concern: "Cheryl, I cannot die...."

Reflection on Mother Moon's Quote

"Today I invite women to accept an important role and become the turning point in building a new century characterized by a loving, peaceful culture."

Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, October 27, 2012, Women as the Turning Point for Peace

Dr. Moon's words build up my confidence in my own role because she believes in women, in our potential to be givers of love beyond the boundaries of our own families. And she holds that belief because, as a woman, she has embodied that potential herself, and her special and constant love connection with God, our Heavenly Parent, has made that possible.

Women of Faith Living Together in Peace

Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) Canada hosted its second Women of Faith Webinar of this year on Monday, September 26, 2022. The webinar featured three speakers, Caroline Keshinro (Evangelist in Christ Apostolic Church World Wide), Jaquie Chityoka (WFWP Board Member) and Halchigul Pataer (Legal Administrator and Social Advocate for Uyghur Islam). There were 35 participants in attendance.

"Women of Faith Living Together in Peace! What does it take?" was the brainchild of WFWP President Lilly Tadin and members of her board. The event was moderated by Saphia Toure (WFWP board member). "WFWP would like to explore more about what it takes for all of us to live together in peace...."

Encouraging, Uplifting, Radiant!

WFWP members were treated to a wonderful evening of positivity, faith, and music with HerStory Award recipient Joan Myers. Joan shared how she uses her special talents to bring hope and healing to people she meets, through her dual careers as international gospel singer and accounting professional. Every arena, whether artistic, business, or ministry, is an opportunity for Joan to uplift and inspire others to use their gifts for the greater good.

Joan reminded WFWP members of Jesus's words calling us "the salt of the earth," and shared one of her favorite Bible verses, Philippians 4:6-7. "Do not be anxious about anything..."

The Mindful Path – A Radiant Life

Editor's Note: This article was originally published by My Prime Time News on September 26, 2022 and shared with permission.

"With the right words, you can change the world." Charlotte's Web The quintessential, farm classic "Charlotte's Web" debuted 70 years ago, on October 15, 1952. Author E.B. White crafted this enduring tale of friendship. The book has remained in print for decades to be celebrated by teachers, grandparents, parents, and children. The gentle story lends itself to be a great read-aloud book.

You may recall the cast of memorable characters including Charlotte, the amazingly talented brown spider; Wilbur, the famous pig...
