PRESIDENT'S CORNER CONCRETE STEPS TO INNER PEACE

Dear friend,

The word "Peace" still resonates in our ears as peoples and organizations commemorated International Peace Day on September 21 around the country and the world.

From what I've noticed, there seems to be a trend or deeper realization that's making its way to the surface in many global peace talks, ever so slightly, yet consistently, that peace on the larger level must begin with each person's inner state of being...

KEYNOTE SPEAKER DR. HAK JA HAN MOON
WOMEN'S FEDERATION FOR WORLD PEACE FOUNDER

Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum, Long Island, New York

Dear Friends,

Greetings of love from WFWP USA!

As a number of leaders in the last century observed, "We will have peace when we love our grandchildren more than we hate our enemies." We are entering a new era where the role of women as peace-builders in the public sector is needed more than ever.

Over the last 26 years Women's Federation for World Peace has been empowering women with knowledge, skills and a supportive community to find their unique value and use their innate feminine qualities to transform pain into purpose, and hate, strife and war, to an environment conducive for genuine peace. Visit our website at www.wfwp.us.

This feminine type of leadership, based on the philosophy of "Living by the Logic of Love," which our Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, has been promoting and modeling has inspired thousands around the globe.

It is our great pleasure and joy to invite you to experience and hear Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, whom we lovingly call "Mother of Peace" at the "Peace Starts With Me" rally of reconciliation, hope, and healing for America at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum on Monday, November 12, 2-5 PM.

On the observed date of Veterans Day 2018, we invite you to join over 15,000 people, among them faith leaders, public officials, women, and youth from every sector of America, to witness the honoring of a significant number of veterans. We will also hear inspiring and stirring messages from Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon and Bishop Noel Jones of the City of Refuge in Los Angeles, to seek unity among Americans in our divided country.

It will also be a celebration. Grammy Award winning gospel artists Bishop Hezekiah Walker and Yolanda Adams will be singing with a 5,000-voice choir from the combined congregations of New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

A WFWP delegation will be seated in section C of the auditorium, and we invite you to join us in this section. No matter where you sit during this event, if you are coming on behalf of WFWP, we would love to know about it! Confirm your attendance with us by submitting your name below. Those who confirm and reserve seats in section C will receive a special WFWP ribbon on a first come first serve basis before the program begins! Please click HERE to buy your seats on Ticketmaster.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to email info@wfwp.us or call 212 302 8837.

Don't miss this opportunity to experience being uplifted, empowered, energized, and transformed by the Divine Spirit that will manifest on that day. Tickets are going fast. We look forward to seeing you there with your friends and family.

ARTISTS FOR WORLD PEACE: EDUCATING FOR PEACE SERIES

Money may move economies, but art moves people. Artists have the ability to affect those around them without even speaking. Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) Canada and the Universal Peace Federation (UPF) hosted their most recent Educating for Peace talk on September 22nd in honor of International Peace Day with a theme of "Artists and World Peace." The day began with remarkable Pakistani artist, social worker, and peace activist Jimmy Engineer sharing his incredible testimony...

PEACE IS THE ANTIDOTE TO FEAR: INTERNATIONAL PEACE DAY TALKS IN OREGON

Peace is something we all strive for, but too often fear, cynicism, bigotry, and other attitudes can predominate, producing problems as varied as anxiety, homelessness, crime, and wars. Nancy put forth the suggestion that peace is the antidote to fear. The Dalai Lama, she noted, has said that peace can only occur when people's needs are satisfied on a compassionate level. As peace seekers, we need to search within to find ways and opportunities to have empathy for and serve others. Through this, we can develop a greater understanding, and discover how to communicate with others in deep sincerity...

SPROUTING SEEDS IN LITTLE ROCK: INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE EVENT

Sprouting Seeds in Little Rock: International Day of Peace Event
Bruce Biggins, representative from WFWP Arkansas, invited me to come and speak to local members and guests for International Peace Day on Friday, September 21st. The weather was bad that week, with threatening storms and flooding in the area. On top of which, Vice President Pence decided to come to downtown Little Rock and hold a rally for a local Republican congressman, so several roads were closed during his visit. Thus, only 12 people were able to show up on Friday night for my talk at the First United Methodist Church chapel in downtown Little Rock. However, that did not dampen our spirits...

UNITY OF NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA: SEATTLE COMES TOGETHER FOR THE INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

On the last day of summer 2018, WFWP Pennsylvania celebrated 26 years of garnering recognition from all over PA. It's been 7 years already since the spotlight was truly caught and maintained by WFWP here in PA; for WFWP has proved to be one of the women's organizations that serves others the most. It has a significant role as a model organization for promoting peace, reconciliation, and collaboration with other groups in Pennsylvania. On Aug 25, 2018, Mike Turzai, Speaker of the House of Pennsylvania, and State Rep Margo Davidson applauded and publicly honored WFWP by offering citations with the seal of the House of Representatives...
