WFWP USA WELCOMES NEW WFWP INTERNATIONAL SR. VP IN NEW YORK CITY

At a recent international leaders gathering in South Korea, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon appointed Dr. Sun Jin Moon as Senior Vice President of Women's Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI), with particular focus on North and South America as well as Europe. Dr. Sun Jin Moon gladly accepted her new position, ready to work in close collaboration with WFWP International President Mrs. Julia Moon.

Less than two weeks after her appointment, on September 1st, around 55 women — among them 10 chairwomen — gathered at the WFWP USA national office to warmly welcome Sun Jin Moon and her husband In Sup Park to WFWP. It was an unexpectedly large turnout, particularly since it was Labor Day weekend in the United States...

PROVIDING AID TO WAR-TORN SYRIA: NATALIE LARRISON SHARES HER STORY WITH WFWP ARKANSAS

The WFWP Chapter of Arkansas held its September meeting on the 9th of September at the Laman Library in North Little Rock. Our guest speaker was Natalie Larrison, who is the Outreach Director for the Wisdom House Project and the Syrian Emergency Task Force (SETF). The Wisdom House is the humanitarian arm of the SETF and has run a school for kindergarten students for the past three years, paying teachers there and providing supplies and resources. It has also run a women's center teaching skills that enable women in the city of Idlib, Syria to provide for their families...

"WHEN GOD GIVES YOU A DREAM, HE IS NOT LOOKING AT YOUR BANK ACCOUNT BUT AT YOUR FAITH" - RHIA LUZ FINDS HER VOICE

We have incredible ladies (and men) that support the Women's Federation for World Peace USA around the country, and we may see them at national or international gatherings here and there, but how well do we actually know each of them? Each person has a story to share, their own challenges and victories great and small, so we wanted to use the Logic of Love newsletter as a tool to give them a voice and hopefully be an inspiration to our readers. As our network of WFWP friends is ever growing and expanding, we decided to do a new series of getting to know our chairwomen and representatives in the United States, and we are starting this month with Rhia Clemente Nkulu aka Rhia Luz, the chairwoman of the Arizona chapter...

A CELEBRATION OF DIVERSE CULTURES: WFWP CHAPTER KICK-OFF EVENT IN TEXAS

What a colorful and uplifting start for Wendy Dayagon as a local representative of WFWP in Baytown, Texas (in the Houston area). In August, Wendy partnered with a faith-based nonprofit organization, Women of Worth, to create a fun and meaningful event on the theme of embracing cultural differences. Read on to find out more about her first event.

Before I became a Women's Federation representative here in Houston, I had already been connected to a local organization called Women of Worth (WOW) and attended several of their events. It is led by pastor couples from Honduras who migrated to our town about five years ago, and the organization itself was launched three years ago. As their values and objectives align with those of WFWP, it became natural to partner up with them...

UNLOCK YOUR FULL POTENTIAL: FREE ONLINE CLASSES AND DISCOUNTED TRAINING FOR WFWP MEMBERS!

Aimée Kodachian, Special Liaison Officer for WFWP USA, knows the challenges of overcoming difficulties. With only a 4th grade education, traumatized by having lived 13 years through the 1975 Lebanese Civil War, Aimée arrived in America unable to read, write, or speak English. She was told to go home by those who didn't see any way for her to succeed.

Despite these challenges and setbacks, Aimée was able to tap into her Negotiator Mind™ – the mental equivalent of a GPS system – to start her own business, publish a book, and become the producer and host of several television shows...
